Bible Reading Plan

2026–2027 (New Testament)

This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night,
so that you may be careful to do
according to all that is written in it.
For then you will make your way prosperous,
and then you will have good success.

Joshua 1:8 (ESV)

FOREWORD

All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work. (2 Timothy 3:16–17 ESV)

When Paul used the Greek word theopneustos, which translates to “breathed out by God,” it implies that Scripture originates with God and communicates the mind, will, and design of God. Just like our exchange of thoughts with one another requires us to use our breath to verbalise our words, God spoke through His breath to communicate His thoughts to us.

John Stott captures this well by stating that Scripture “originated in God’s mind and was communicated from God’s mouth by God’s breath or Spirit.”¹

We started the Bible Reading Plan of the Old Testament in 2025 as part of our 30th anniversary celebration. This year, we seek to complete the reading of the Bible by embarking on the New Testament. It is our desire to know the mind of God, to know His plan and purposes for us as individuals and as a church. And Scripture, both the Old and New Testaments, is the way to know the mind of God.

Therefore, let’s encourage one another to know God more through the reading of the New Testament. Let’s be the church that knows the mind of God and walks in the ways that honour and please our God.

Blessings,
Ps Jonathan

TIPS FOR USING THE BIBLE READING PLAN

As we read and meditate on God's Word daily, may we grow closer to Him. Here are some tips to help you complete the New Testament in one year.

Think Relational, Not Routine

- Bible reading is not a homework assignment from God, but a way that God has provided for us to know Him intimately. Do not let it become a box-checking activity.
- Set aside a fixed time each day according to your preference, and keep it free as much as possible for your Bible reading.
- Start reading as if you're in conversation with God. Begin and end with prayer.

Set Realistic Goals

- Aim to complete your daily reading according to the plan in this guide, but missing a day or two does not mean you have failed.
- Catch-up days have been scheduled to help you stay on track if you miss your reading/s.
- If you are on track, feel free to take a break or use the catch-up day to reflect more deeply on the readings / summarise what you have gleaned.
- If you fall behind, don't give up! Pick up where you left off and try to catch up as much as possible. Alternatively, skip the days you have missed and pick up on that day's readings.

Use Different Platforms

- This Bible Reading Plan is available as a PDF or hardcopy. Use it to help you track your progress.
- Use an audio Bible while commuting or exercising, or to accompany your reading.
- Watch the summary video by The Bible Project before starting a new book. (Links to the videos are embedded and printed herein.)
- Journal your reflections, especially after completing each book of the Bible.

Form Accountability Groups

- Form a group of two to three friends (Bible Buddies) or members from your small group for accountability.
- Share key learnings and takeaways during your regular small group meeting (or with your Bible Buddies).
- Complete the daily readings together as a family (include your children, if any!).
